

The Easy Way to Sell on eBay

Locally Owned Franchise Launches Fundraising Effort for Tsunami Relief Efforts
iSOLD it on eBay to give 100 percent of donated items to organizations involved in aid

(SEATTLE) A locally owned, national franchise is hoping to raise more than $250,000 for charities undertaking relief efforts in Indonesia. Groups like Mercy Corps and the Red Cross need contributions of money more than donated items, so "iSOLD It on eBay" (the nations #1 eBay drop off store) is helping turn donated items into cash for food and supplies.

WHAT: Since many folks are cleaning closets and starting fresh in the New Year, and at the same time wanting to help aid agencies channel supplies to people hit by the tsunami, people can bring their items (anything that's worth $30 or more ) to stores in Puyallup, Federal Way or Bellevue where they will photograph, categorize, list on eBay, sell and ship the product - 100 percent of the proceeds will be given to charity for items dropped off by January 7 and identified as Tsunami aid - after this date 2/3 of the proceeds go to charity (the remaining 1/3 covers their processing costs).

What can people donate? ANYTHING that sells on eBay.

Popular items for sale on eBay include:

- Antiques and collectibles
- Designer clothing, shoes and accessories
- Electronics (cameras, computers, etc.)
- Housewares
- Event Tickets - Sports, Concerts, etc.
- Jewelry and watches
- Entertainment memorabilia
- Musical instruments
- Sports equipment and memorabilia
- Vehicle parts and accessories

WHO: The locally owned, nationally-leading eBay drop off store, "iSOLD It on eBay", regularly offers this service to non-profits and charities for fundraising, but hopes to raise at least $250 ,000 for local aid efforts. Charities can be specified at the time of drop off, called in later, or can be selected from a rapidly growing list.
